NOMINATING COMMITTEE for the ANNUAL MEETING & ELECTIONS to be held in June - A Nominating Committee shall soon be appointed 'whose duties shall be to interview prospective officers for the coming year and to propose a slate of officers at the Annual Meeting'. Members can submit their own name or those of other members in good standing for consideration as Officers and/or as Chairperson of a Standing Committee.

STANDING COMMITTEES NEWS BITS:

Gallery Committee: The Gallery status will be elevated from a special ad hoc committee to a Standing Committee as voted in the February General Members Meeting. Standing committees work together and tap into existing expertise when working on Society projects.

School Committee: To break-even we've had to raise class fees a little due to rising room rentals. Bob Noble is open to ideas for potential future Art Instructors and classes. Please contact Bob Noble a.s.a.p.

Meetings & Membership: Help increase attendance at meetings by calling up a member or friend and come together, especially to our artists' demos and events!

Jules Landry, Artist and former member, was born in 1953 in Grand Barachois, NB, and worked at several trades before dedicating himself exclusively to art. He works in oil, charcoal and pastel with a special emphasis on drawing skills with a traditional approach strengthened by keen observation. He teaches drawing and art at his studio and has had several solo exhibitions as well as group exhibitions. His works can be viewed at the Heron Bay Gallery in Shediac and at other galleries in the province as well as at his studio in Grand Barachois. (Copy translated from Heron Bay Gallery website/ra)

Art Quote: The science of design, or of line-drawing, if you like to use this term, is the source and very essence of painting, sculpture, architecture... Sometimes... it seems to me that... all the works of the human brain and hand are either design itself or a branch of that art. - Michelangelo
